

Review: Conducting Basic Research

Name _____ Date _____

Your Turn

Answer the following questions.

- Define triggering questions. Triggering questions are starting points for research.
 _____
 (Answers may vary.)
- Which of the following is not a category of triggering questions.

a. Ideas	d. Places
<input checked="" type="radio"/> b. Open	e. Things
c. People
- Define pointed questions. Pointed questions are more-specific questions for planning and organizing research. (Answers may vary.)
 _____
- True or  false? Other people can be a legitimate source of information for research.
- Which of the following is not a search heading in a computer catalog?

a. Author	c. Subject
<input checked="" type="radio"/> b. Location	d. Title
- List one pro and one con about using electronic notes.
 Pro: Answers will vary. See page 269.
 _____
 _____
 Con: _____
 _____
- True or  false? A line diagram lists things in order: first, next, then, last.

Reflect: When you find information that does not include its source, what might you suspect about the information?

Answers will vary.

_____

_____

_____

_____