

Review: Overview of 21st Century Skills

Name _____ Date _____

Your Turn

Answer each of the following questions.

1. How does a Mobius strip represent the learning process?

A Mobius strip is a continuous curve and suggests ongoing learning.

2. What are the 21st century skills?

- a. Critical and creative thinking
- b. Problem solving and inquiry
- c. Communication and collaborating
- d. Building arguments
- e. All of the above
- f. None of the above

3. What does it mean to learn in context?

- a. To learn in isolation
- b. To learn while you are involved in units of study

4. What is the important first step when problem solving or using the inquiry process?

asking questions

5. What does collaborating mean?

working together

6. Why is managing information a survival skill?

You have to know what to pay attention to, whether information is accurate and unbiased, and how to find what you need.

7. Why is reading considered a gateway skill?

It opens up many learning opportunities.

Reflect:

What is one of the most important things you have learned so far about 21st century skills?
