

Review: Critical Thinking

Name _____

Date _____

Your Turn

Answer each of the following questions.

1. Which of the following are examples of critical thinking?
 - a. Tracing the causes and effects of something
 - b. Using a rubric to evaluate something
 - c. Answering who, what, where, when, why, and how about something
 - d. Organizing details in a logical order
 - e. All of these are examples of critical thinking.

2. Reorder these thinking skills from simple to complex.

Creating	_____
Applying	_____
Remembering	_____
Evaluating	_____
Analyzing	_____
Understanding	_____

3. To analyze a period or an event in history, what critical thinking strategy would work well?

4. What does it mean to reason deductively? _____

5. What does it mean to reason inductively? _____

6. What is the three-part structure? _____

Reflect:

Which critical thinking strategy in this chapter do you find most helpful and why?

Describe one way that you could use critical thinking in one of your classes.
